

Broccoli That Tastes Good Without Butter

This broccoli needs no butter or cheese sauce. It's hard to believe, I know. But give it a try. Put a pound or less of cut up broccoli in a covered glass baking dish. Add 2 or 3 tablespoons of water. Don't bother measuring. Sprinkle the broccoli with dried granulated garlic and dried hot peppers. The hot peppers, aka red hots, that come with pizza are perfect. Microwave on high for 6 to 8 minutes. Check for doneness at 6 minutes.
